The Community Room at Providence Bank & Trust

The Community Room at Greater Grand Crossing is available for use by non-profit community organizations free of charge. The main purpose of the room is to provide a clean, safe, and professional environment for organizations to host their meetings and small gatherings. Prior approval is required.

The Community Room is available for use as follows:

- 1) Monday through Friday – 9:00am until 8:00pm (cst); excluding bank recognized holidays
- 2) Saturday – 9:00am until 1:00pm
- 3) We are closed on Sundays

Please note: All events should be scheduled to end around 30 minutes prior to closing as all attendees must vacate the premises on or before closing times.

Guidelines:

- 1) All standing meetings will be scheduled on a quarterly basis only. This is to allow all organizations an opportunity to use the Community Room.
- 2) All organizations must complete, sign and submit the written request at least two weeks in advance.
- 3) All organizations requesting the Community Room are required to read, sign and adhere to the guidelines set forth.
- 4) No monetary exchange or solicitation is permitted at any event in the Community Room.
- 5) All attendees must park at the far south end of the parking lot. Handicapped parking is accessible as needed on the north side of the parking lot.
- 6) Only Providence Bank & Trust security will allow attendees access to the building entrances and exits.
- 7) Noise levels must be kept to a professional, low level.
- 8) Providence Bank & Trust security and Branch Managers will provide access to the Community Room only. Room setup will be provided as per the request of the organization. No other services will be provided.
- 9) All meetings must take place entirely within the Community Room. Loitering in the building lobby areas will be strictly prohibited.
- 10) Alcoholic beverages and any use/sale or distribution of illegal substances are prohibited on or around the property.
- 11) The Community Room must be cleaned and the room restored to its prior condition after every meeting.
- 12) Providence Bank & Trust reserves the right to reschedule approved events.
- 13) Providence Bank & Trust reserves the right to suspend an organizations' use of the Community Room if events are not cancelled within 48 hours of the approved event day and time.
- 14) Providence Bank & Trust reserves the right to suspend an organizations' use of the Community Room for violations of these guidelines.
